ime	Activity	Faculty	Description
10:30 AM - 12:00 NOON (Each class runs three times: Starting at 10:30 AM, 11:00 AM, and 11:30 AM)	1. New SAI Song Assessment Tool	Mary Rhea (International Faculty)	Explore the newly rolled out Song Assessment Tool – its purpose, how to use where to find resources. Ideal for those who choose music for choruses or quartets and for anyone who wants to know more about the music we sing.
	2. Let's Start Singing Again!	Katie Blackwood (Regional Faculty)	For those who have not been singing regularly during the pandemic here is a 15-20 minute series of exercises to warm-up then cool down your voice gently. These exercises are excellent if you are recovering from any vocal trauma, a cold, laryngitis, or have not been using your voice.
	3. Storytelling Through Honest Expression	Alexis DePersia-Norelli (Regional Faculty)	How do we make our faces convey what our minds think? What our hearts fee How do we use our faces and bodies to tell stories that are so important they have to be sung and not spoken? Come to this class and find out!
	4. The Passion Is Me!	Harriette Walters (Regional Faculty)	Turning vision into reality requires passion! Explore the impact passion has on your performance by focusing on your intention and mindset.
	5. Quartetting During A Pandemic	Sharon Vitkovsky (Regional Faculty)	Share your quartet experiences from these past several months and hear idea: about how you can connect and be productive. We will keep a list of all the god ideas and share them at the end of the day!

Description Beautiful sounds, correctly produced are lovely. Singing with emotion and artistry touches the heart. Which one is more important? Or can we have both some constitution of the project using our regional song, That's What Friends Are For.  Closing remarks
